

What Should We Do to Improve Japanese Education?

~A Comparative Study with Current Situations in Other Asian Countries~

2721: Aichi Prefectural Jishukan High School

1. Introduction I want to be a teacher in the future and have decided to think about the future of Japanese education in my research project. I have paid attention to educational circumstances seen in other countries especially I have focused on Asian countries, whose academic abilities are said to be above that of Japan.

2. PISA2015

PISA2015 is a world academic survey.

Singapore and Taiwan are in high rank.

	Science	Reading	Maths
Singapore	556	535	564
Japan	538	Hong Kong 527	Hong Kong 548
Estonia	534	Canada 527	Macau 544
Taiwan	532	Finland 526	Taiwan 542
Finland	531	Ireland 521	Japan 532

	science	reading	math
Singapore	1	1	1
Taiwan	4	23	4
Japan	2	8	5

Poor reading ability

3. Education Scene in Singapore

Multicultural society

Constitution of a race

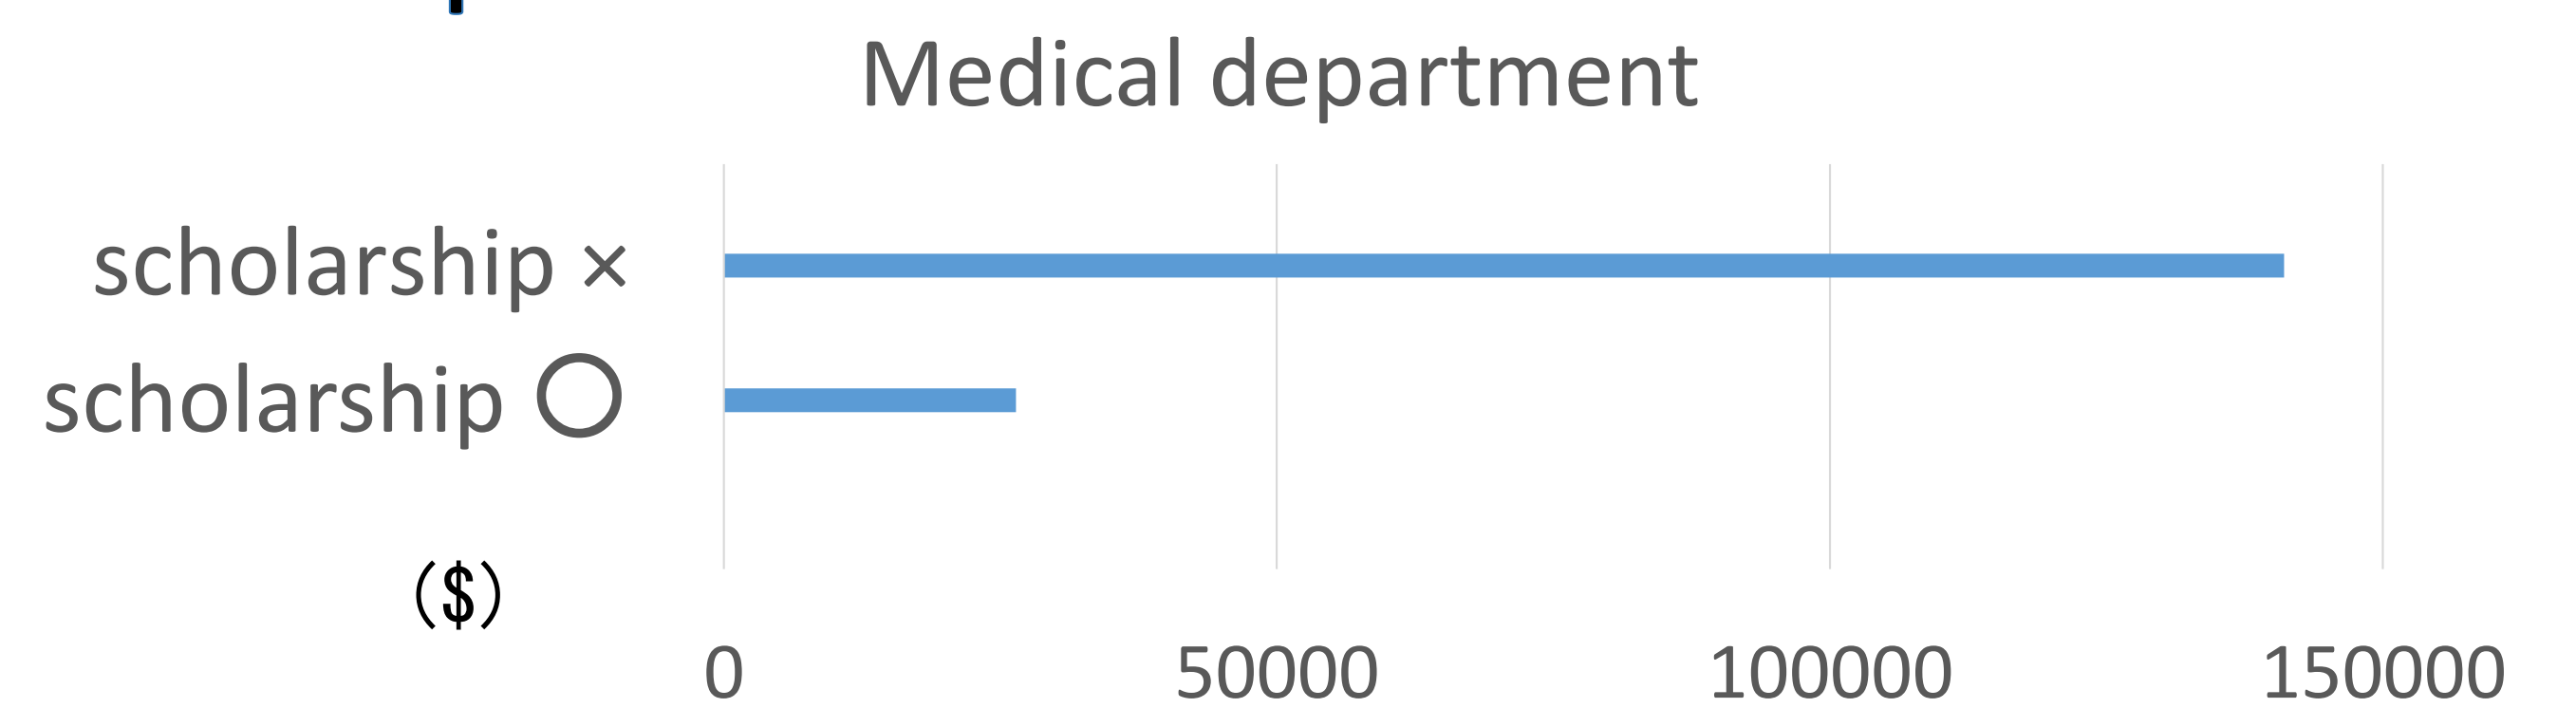

Chinese Malaysian Indian

Students in Singapore

scholarship

National University of Singapore

4. Education Scene in Taiwan

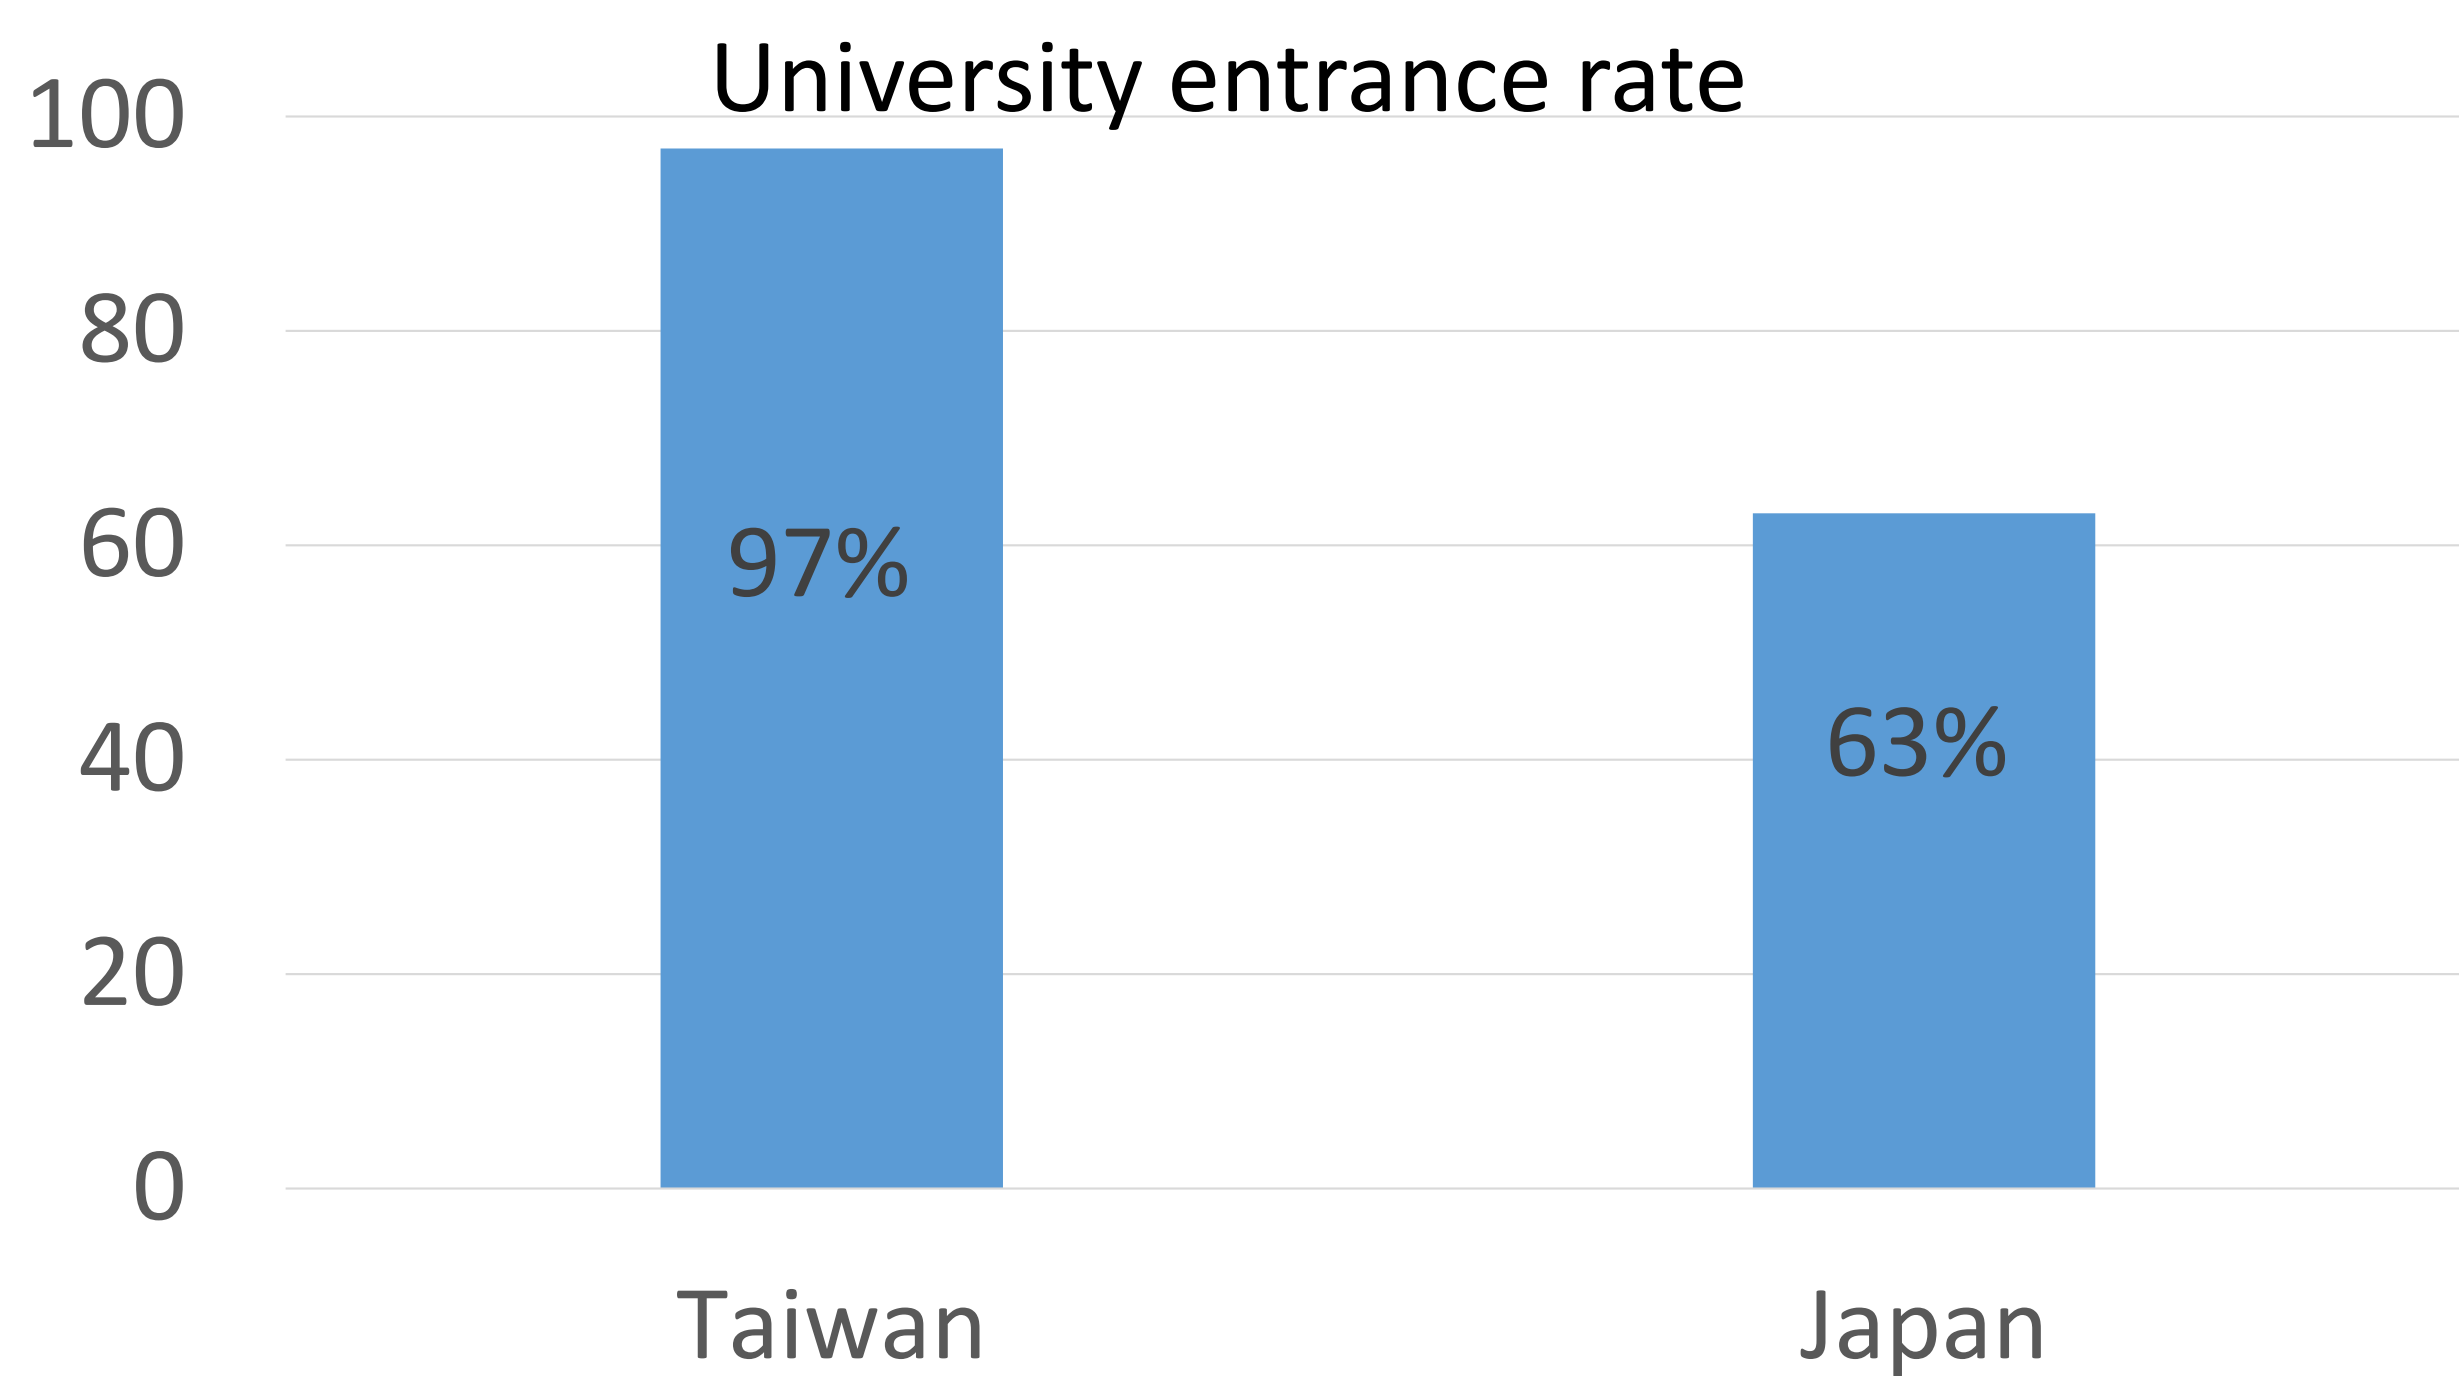

Nap time

Students in Taiwan sleep after they finish lunch

Students take a nap

Many students go to university

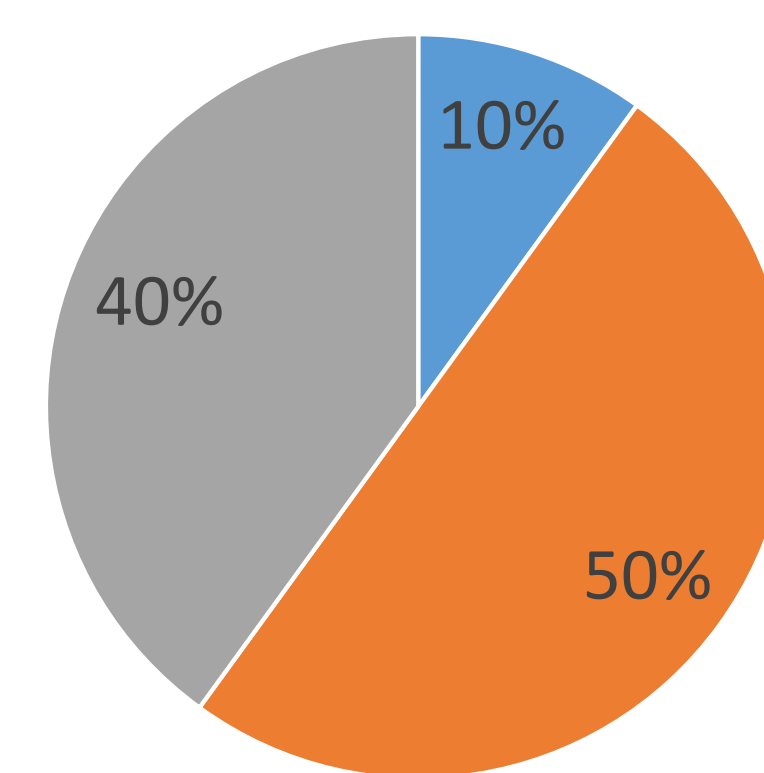

PSLE

PSLE is a elementary school graduation exam

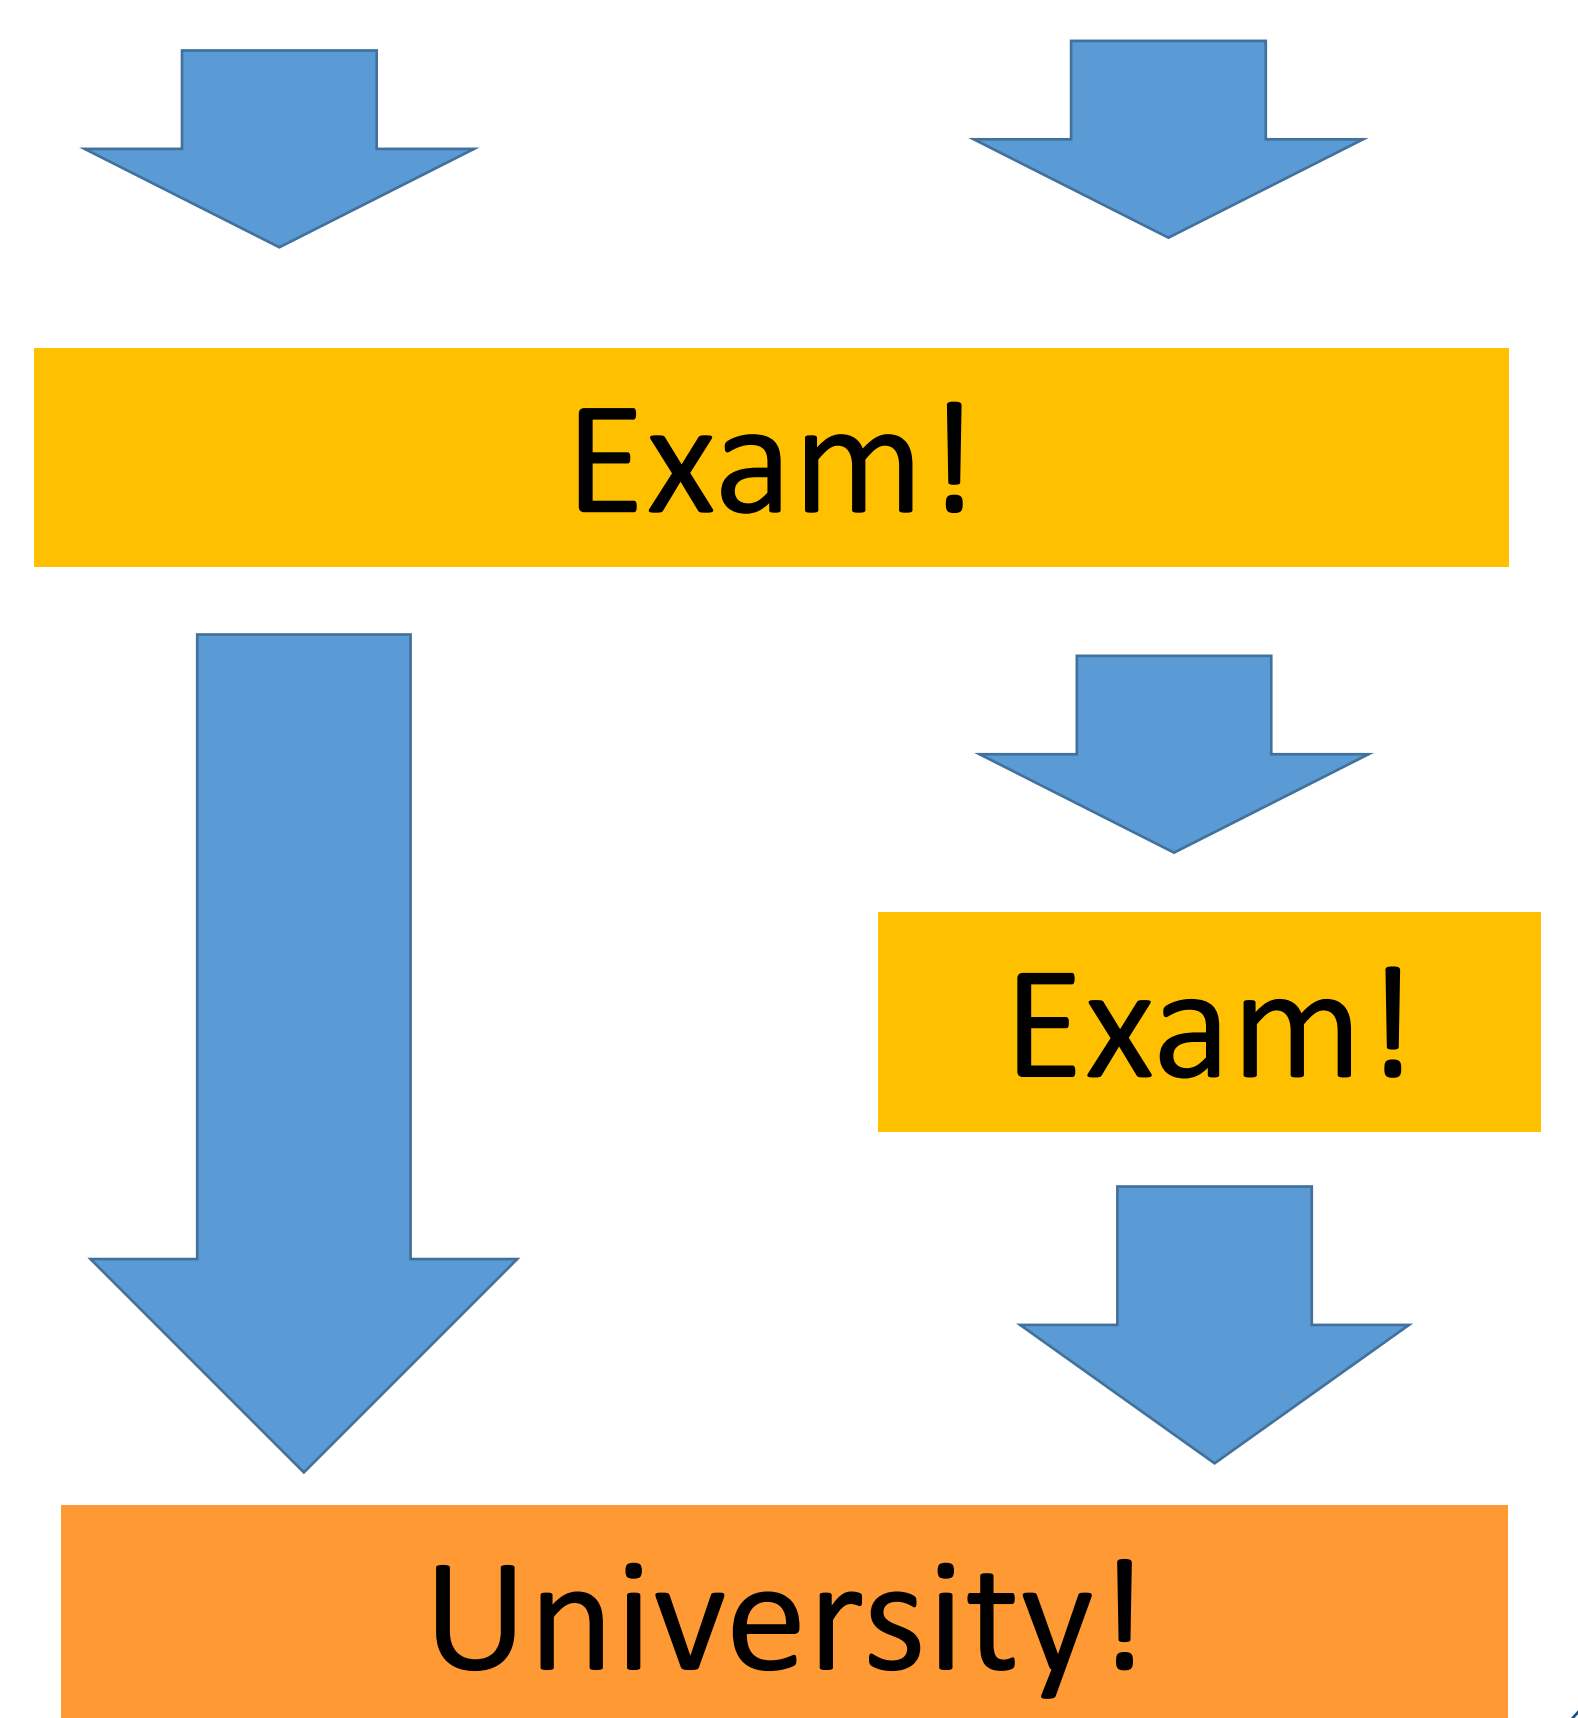

Special and express course

Normal course

PSLE Results

special course express course normal course

5. To improve Japanese education

- Japan should revise the scholarship system
- Japan should have an elementary school graduation examination
- Japan should introduce a nap time

Conclusions

Singapore and Taiwan have environment and the system that students become eager.

My opinion

To improve Japanese education, Japan should learn from Asian countries.
