

1 Background

Increase of foreigners

2 What motivated me?

- Confused about the injustices
- Want to reduce the injustices
- “We live in the same Japan!”

3 Methods and Results

How does our local area treat foreigners?

Shibazono house complex

- About half of the residents are Chinese
- Many are young Chinese

Murakami house complex

- Most of the population of foreigners who speak Portuguese in Chiba live here
- This complex is a Multicultural communication center

Shibazono house complex

- Held an event for Japanese and foreign residents
- Won the Saitama global prize and earth citizen prize

Murakami house complex

- Held the Japanese class and translated Japanese documents
- Shortage of staff

Advantage

“We want to live equally.”
“I’m worried about disappearing of Japanese culture.”

“There is few communication between them.”
“Japanese are old and Chinese are young.”

Shibazono’s problem

Attitude towards communication

Age

Language

4 Conclusion

What should we do?

- Should be forward in communication
- Say hello to them as same residents
- Make opportunity to communicate
- Find common topics between old and young people
- Involve people who speak both languages

5 Outlook

- Suggest solutions that match local problems!!
- Make the support effective!

- Approach many people
- Make plans to communicate with each other
- Make opportunities to communicate
