

Why do people who live in Kesennuma feel less connection with the sea than before ?

Relationship with marine plastic

2801:Koki Sato Kesennuma High School

I Introduction

Now Everywhere in the world is full of marine plastic waste. Umibanare is increasing in Japan.

Issues How to reduce plastic waste flowing into the environment. How to reduce Umibanare.

Significance Make people play in the sea ,sea protection, environmental conservation, development of sustainable society

Viewpoint Memories of the sea when people were little and people's awareness of Marine Plastics are related.

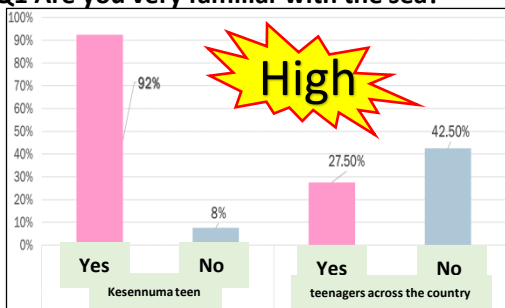

[Hypothesis]

When we were children, there were few memories of the sea and the number of visits.

⇒Umibanare and marine plastic waste are increasing in Kesennuma.

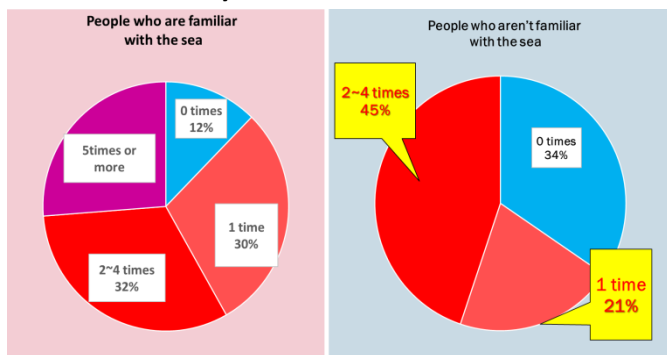

II Body ①The situation of Umibanare in Kesennuma

Q1 Are you very familiar with the sea?

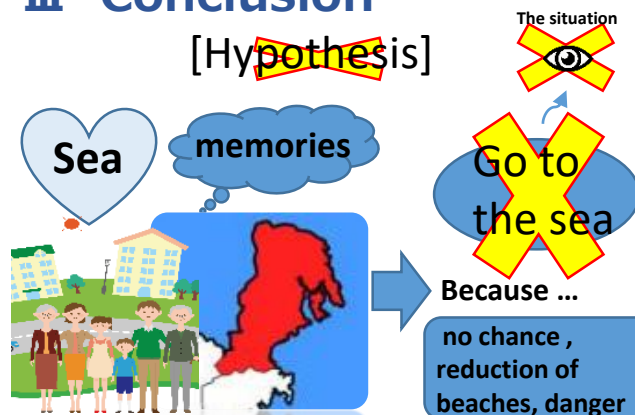

(Kesennuma high school second grader 138 people questionnaire results)

Q2 How many times did you go to the sea when you were in elementary school?

III Conclusion

[Hypothesis]

Go

- Go to the sea with purpose ⇒When the beach is revived

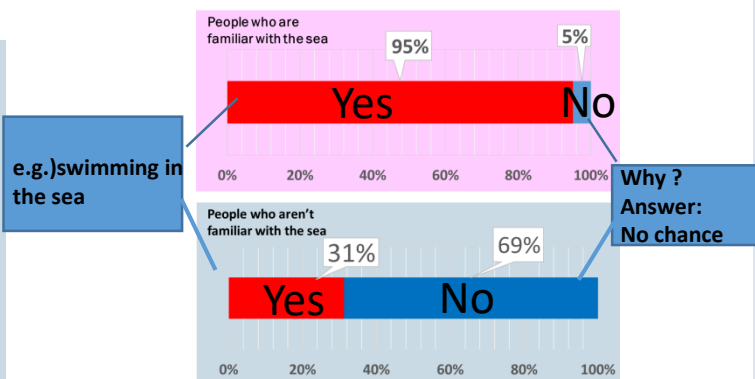

See

- go to the sea with family and people around
- think of a problem with the natural eye

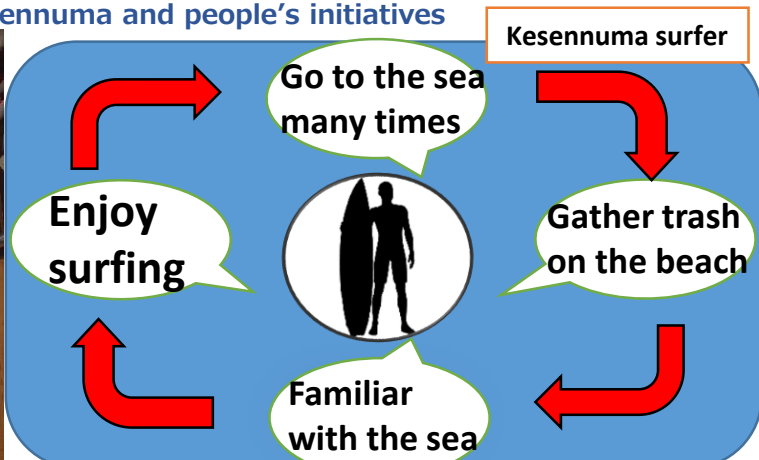

Think

- Going to the sea becomes a habit and you notice the change of nature.
- .Become a person who does what they can

Q3 Do you have fun memories from the sea?

②The situation of marine plastic waste in Kesennuma and people's initiatives

VI References

At Koizumi coast

Nihonzaidan <https://www.nippon-foundation.or.jp/>

The homepage of Oshima island <https://www.qkamura.or.jp/kesen/>