

Challenge Yourself to Change the World

No. 2637 Kyoto Municipal Horikawa High School

What gives you the greatest “enthusiasm”?

Y. Kitamura

Joining Global Leader Development Program (Kyoto City)
2 weeks of English study and cultural exchange in London, UK
Joining a language school and taking lessons, doing activities, and sightseeing

Joining Global English Camp (Toshin)

5 days of English study and presentation training

Discussing and doing activities with international students from American universities

Attending an Presentation Contest (Kyoto City)
Presenting in front of students from other municipal high schools

Attending World Youth Summit 2017

3 days of Model United Nations in Taipei, Taiwan

Topic: (Y.K. & T.K.) “SOCHUM - The Problem of Child Labor in Developing Countries”
(T.S.) “UNEP – Regulating Marine Debris”

Going for Global Field Study (Horikawa H.S.)

9 days of studying abroad with other students in the school

Students making 4 groups to visit US (Washington D.C. + Orlando or Boston), Australia, or Malaysia

Managing Kyoto Friendship-Cities Youth Conference

3 days of discussion between high school students from Kyoto and international students
To make Kyoto a better place under 3 viewpoints of Culture, Environment, and Globalization

Studying in Canada

2 weeks of English study and cultural exchange in Vancouver, Canada

Visiting Tanzania

2 weeks of life-experiencing and volunteering in Arusha, Tanzania

Into the “unknown”

With comrades

Creation from “nothing”

GAP (Global Academic Project)

- Group of students who have gathered to manage Kyoto Friendship-Cities Youth Conference.
- Trying to foster abilities required for global leaders such as to act independently, to negotiate and communicate with others, through preparing for the conference and participating in other activities.